LNC: XXXX

Re: Lattiner v. AmericanHealth Century, et al.

Dear LNC XXXX:

Daniel McBride is representing the Estate of Timothy Lattiner in litigation filed against AmericanHealth Century, Edward Gantz MD, Erica Easton CRNA, and Associated Anesthesia of Florida for medical malpractice. This letter will confirm that you have been retained as a consulting in this case. As discussed in your telephone call with Mr. McBride you have agreed to produce a narrative review with legal nurse opinions for the case. Please review records and send your completed report by November 10, 2023.

The following is attached electronically for your review:

1. Select medical records from AmericanHealth Century.

Please advise if you would like to see additional records, or if there is anything in particular you need, and we will be happy to send those. Once you have had an opportunity to review these records, please submit the chronology for Mr. McBride to review and he will contact you to discuss your findings.

The records and materials we send to you in this engagement may contain confidential information including confidential health care information which must be treated as confidential by you. By agreeing to this engagement and performing the services McBride Law has requested you to perform, you understand and agree to be bound by the terms, understand and agree that: (a) the information will remain confidential and will not be further disclosed or used for any purpose other than the purpose for which it was disclosed to you, or as required by law, (b) you will immediately notify McBride Law of any instances of which you are aware in which the confidentiality of the information has been breached, and (c) the information will be destroyed or returned upon conclusion of your services.

I look forward to working with you on this case.

Sincerely,

Alex Dixon
Paralegal
